Are you tired of paying rent, and would you prefer to be your own handlord, even though you have no more to start with than steady employment and a reasonable safary?

Are you willing to make a little effort in your own behalf and add sufficient out of your income to the amount you are now paying for rent to make up a regular monthly payment of $36?

Would you like to own a pretty home in a good neighborhood northeast, containing six good rooms, bath, pantry, furnace and thoroughly dry concreted cellar? Are you in earnest, and do you want to know how to proceed in the matter? If so call to see me and let us talk it over.

BIG FIRE AT ALBANY.

Burning of a Theater This Afternoon.

DIFFICULTY IN FIGHTING THE FLAMES

The City Building and Neighboring Structures in Danger.

HALF A BLOCK IN RUINS.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 6.-The Albany Theater building on South Pearl street is FOR SALE (Bicycles). burning. All the fire department has been ter. The theater has been running as a cheap house for a few years. "Captain Herne, U. S. A.," Company is at the thea-ter this week, and will lose all its effects. The city building, with city courts and fire department headquarters, is next the theater, and are in great danger.

The fire broke out on the stage shortly before noon and burned flercely. The five-story structure, which covers half a block, is occupied by the theater, OCEAN TRAVEL all above the first floor, on which is Drislane's and a saloon. The flames spread so rapidly that the loss will be almost total on building and stock.

At 12:10 p.m. the roof fell in, but nobody was injured.

The firemen had been having great difficulty in fighting the fire on account of the narrow street on which the high building

GOV. PENNOYER'S ANSWERS. Business, He Says, Will Remain Para lyzed in Oregon Until There is More

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 6.-Gov. Pennoyer replying to criticisms on the statements made in his Christmas letter that twothirds of the people of Oregon are without employment said:;

"In any sense of the word, all are employed. The tramp is employed in hunting from place to place for a job and the mechanic out of work is employed in contemplating the sorrowful condition of his wife and children. What I meant was remunerated was remarked. ative employment and what I said was true. Business is paralyzed and two-thirds of our people, if not falling behind, are making no headway. Nor will they until we have sufficient, full, legal tender currency—gold, silver and treasury notes—with which to effect ready and complete interchange of commodities."
